at 0400 on Friday 08 Oct 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Wet in the northwest. Fine elsewhere with some fog. Warm.

Today:
Rain continuing in the northwest but tending to ease, and clearing from Northern Ireland. Elsewhere, fog and low cloud slowly clearing to allow some warm sunshine for many, though staying cloudier in the far southeast.

Tonight:
Rain moving across parts of Northern Ireland and northwest Scotland, heavy at times. South and southeast England turning cooler with fog patches. Otherwise mostly cloudy with spots of light rain.

Saturday:
Fog lifting over south and central England to leave warm sunshine. Cloudier elsewhere with rain in far northwest moving across Scotland and into north England whilst easing.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mainly dry Sunday after patchy drizzle clears the south, some blustery showers across the north. Rain for the northwest Monday but dry for most into the start of next week.
